FULL BIO:

Rick Molloy is a one-man show with a sound that blends acoustic rock, alt-rock, and classic rock influences into a dynamic and engaging live experience. Whether performing stripped-down acoustic sets or delivering high-energy rock performances, Rick's music resonates with audiences through soulful melodies, intricate guitar work, and a heartfelt approach to storytelling.

His sound has been described as "brimming with light, easygoing, yet punchy sonic characters," drawing comparisons to legendary artists such as Pink Floyd, Soundgarden, Audioslave, and The Smashing Pumpkins. With a setlist that mixes fan-favorite covers and compelling original music, Rick brings an atmosphere that's both intimate and electrifying—perfect for any venue or event.

Beyond the stage, Rick is also a respected professional luthier based in Seattle, crafting and restoring high-quality guitars with a deep passion for both the art and science of sound. He shares his expertise through regular workshops, helping musicians enhance their instruments and playing experience.

Rick has performed at numerous venues across Seattle, including The Spot, and his music continues to reach a growing audience worldwide. His single, "Heart On Fire," has surpassed 35,000 streams on Spotify, a testament to his ability to connect with listeners beyond the live setting.

With a lifelong passion for music and a commitment to delivering unforgettable performances, Rick Molloy is ready to bring his unique blend of rock and acoustic energy to your stage.

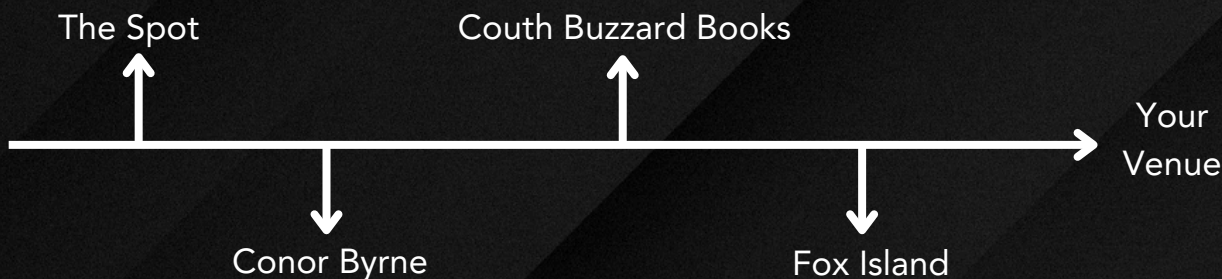

MUSIC & LIVE SHOWS:

Rick Molloy has become a standout presence in Seattle's thriving live music circuit, frequently taking the stage at some of the city's most beloved open mic nights, including The Spot, Couth Buzzard Books, Fox Island, and Conor Byrne Pub. With his signature blend of acoustic rock, alt-rock energy, and heartfelt lyricism, Rick's performances create an intimate connection with his audience, making each show a truly special experience.

Over the past few years, Rick has been steadily building his catalog of original music, releasing songs that resonate deeply with listeners. Tracks like "Starchild," "Heart on Fire" (which surpassed 35k streams on Spotify), and his powerful cover of "Killer" highlight his soulful storytelling, dynamic musicianship, and the clear influence of artists like Pink Floyd, Soundgarden, and Smashing Pumpkins.

At his live shows, Rick doesn't just play music—he shares his creative journey, debuting new songs in front of engaged audiences and bringing fresh energy to each performance. Whether he's delivering introspective originals or putting his spin on classic rock favorites, his confident stage presence and authentic performances make every set memorable.
